

DON'T FALL VICTIM TO FRAUD

Never send money to someone you have not met in person and confirm emergency situations are real before sending money.

PROTECT YOURSELF FROM FRAUD

Only use Western Union for sending money to friends and family.

Do not proceed with your money transfer if you have been asked to send money:

- To an individual you have not met in person.
- For an unconfirmed emergency situation.
- For a purchase made online.
- For anti-virus protection.
- For a rental property deposit or payment.
- To claim lottery or prize winnings.
- To pay taxes.
- For a charity donation.
- For a mystery shopping assignment.
- For an employment opportunity.
- For a credit card or loan fee.
- To resolve an immigration matter.

Money transfers can be paid to the receiver quickly. After the money is paid, Western Union generally cannot provide a refund — even if you are the victim of a scam.
